TOLERANCE AND HARMONY

- 1) Garba : Garba is a traditional folk dance form originating from the state of Gujarat, India. It is typically performed during the nine-day Hindu festival of Navratri, which celebrates the goddess Durga. Garba is characterized by its vibrant, energetic movements and is usually performed in a circular formation around a central lamp or an image of the goddess.

2) Radhakrishnan week : Shraavan week is a significant period in the Hindu calendar, particularly dedicated to Lord Shiva. The month of Shraavan (or Sawan) typically falls between July and August and is considered highly auspicious. Devotees observe various rituals, fasts, and prayers during this time to seek blessings from Lord Shiva.

By Cultural Department

3) NSS Camp : An NSS (National Service Scheme) camp is a special camping program organized as part of the National Service Scheme activities in India. These camps are designed to engage students in community service, social welfare activities, and national development projects.

Structure of an NSS Camp

- I. Duration: Usually spans 7 to 10 days.
- II. Participants: Typically involves college students enrolled in the NSS program.
